

NRSG3494: Pediatric Nursing and Applications

Credit Hours: 4.5

Clock Hours: 45/15/45

This course utilizes an integrated, family-centered approach to the nursing assessment and care of the pediatric patient population with an emphasis on common pediatric illnesses and disorders while incorporating theories of development and family dynamics. This course will provide the opportunity to acquire and practice skills related to pediatric nursing practice.