

NRSG4415: Professional Identity, Leadership and Management and Applications

Credit Hours: 4

Clock Hours: 45/0/45

This course focuses on the professional identity of nursing along with leadership and management concepts. Topics include leadership styles, decision making, planned change, defining types and sources of conflict, conflict resolution strategies, and communication