

NRSG4416: Care of the Complex Patient and Applications

Credit Hours: 4

Clock Hours: 45/0/45

This course is an introduction to the critically ill patient. Emphasis is placed on nursing care of the complex patient with health alterations in the one or multiple body systems. Concepts of health promotion, interprofessional collaboration, therapeutic communication and evidence-based practice are incorporated throughout the course.