

DH206: Dental Pharmacology

Credit Hours: 3

Clock Hours: 45/0/0

Study of pharmacology as it affects the clinical practice of dental hygiene. Emphasis is on the drugs and drug groups most commonly used in dentistry. Oral manifestations of drugs prescribed for the dental patients will be addressed.

Prerequisites:

DH224, DH226, DH209, DH201