

NRSG1258: Family Nursing Applications

Credit Hours: 2.5

Clock Hours: 0/30/45

This course provides opportunities to practice advanced nursing skills in the skills and simulation laboratories that are required for patients in women's health, maternity, and pediatric settings. Clinical experiences provide opportunities to apply theoretical concepts to implement safe care to childbearing women, newborns, and children in selected settings.