

NRSG2271: Pharmacology

Credit Hours: 2

Clock Hours: 30/0/0

This course will provide an overview of pharmacologic principles and therapies in nursing. Additionally, this course will explore the varying responsibilities of the professional nurse as they relate to patient-centered pharmacologic treatments and a comprehensive approach to the clinical application of drug therapy.